Mrs. Alice H. Evans will visit her brother, Mr. Henry Humphreys, at Memphis, on her way to Texas.

Mr. David Hunter went to Huntington, W. Va., to attend the funeral obsequies of his brother-in-law, Mr. Jack, a merchant of that city, who died Saturday.

Mr. Frank Bland of Independence is sick at Washington.

Mr. John Larkin, Jr., the farmer, is sick with grip at Washington.

George McHugh is very sick again at her home in the country.

Mr. Harvey Keith sold his crop of tobacco to James Gollenstein at 6¢.

Mr. O. Lorrey sold a small crop of tobacco at 7¢ to Mr. John Worthington.

Fifty-one cottages have already been engaged for Park's Hill Campmeeting this year.

Chenoweth's Cream Lotion heals chapped hands and face and keeps the skin smooth.

25¢ discount or one-half off the price on all Cloaks and Collarotes at the Bee Hive.

Mr. Walter H. Cady left this morning for Hiram, O., to enter upon his course of study at a Bible University.

The big Bee Hive sale continues and there will be many regrets on your part if you do not take advantage of this opportunity to purchase what you want in the drygoods line. The prices on everything have been reduced and the reputation of the goods carried in this store is well known for quality. What can be said on that subject? For some special reminders read the new ad in this impression.

THE MISANTHROPE,
Now, do not censure me if I Grieve you now and then
And tell me to be quiet and cry
Against my fellow men.

Dyspepsia leaves my features pale,
And makes me feel the fret;
Therefore, good people, let me rail
At the last fun I get.

I have no genius for finance;
In sports I never excel;
I never do it well;
I am in truth a lonely man;

I have no money to spend;
So let me scoff at those who can,
It's all the fun I get.

Washington Star.

SEAL master representation must be had in before it's stock is in.

25¢ Stop that cough by using Ray's
Cough Syrup; it's guaranteed.

Mr. W. J. Bracken is sick with the flu at his home at Washington.

Chickens and turkeys will have to go up higher, as the thieves have gotten all the low ones.

Dr. A. G. Browning has been confined to his home with a severe cold. He is now able to be out.

Dr. J. A. Reed was in Millersburg a day or so since to see Miss Mary Carpenter, who is very ill.

A. J. McDougle has given home as Treasurer of School District No. 10,
with C. F. Zweigartury.

25¢ Remnants of Calicoes, Ginghams,
Satins and Linings at the Bee Hive's
Setting-out Sale at 3¢ a yard.

After April 1st, the initiation and degree fees of the 1. O. O. F. Lodge at Paris will be advanced from $15 to $25.

Mr. Jack Cobb of Springfield yesterday assumed the position of telegraph operator at Glenn, on the C. & O.

Rev. Mr. Laird of Millersburg will preach at the Washington Presbyterian Church Sunday morning and evening.

While the poetea catch in the country
the season hasn't been very large, it might be said to have been very voluntarily.

Mr. Charles Hasty, the author of "Two Merry Tramps," is one of the principal comedians of that organization, appearing as "Eric," the country boy.

The Imperial Stock Company closed a very successful three-night engagement at the Opera-house last evening.
Nearly 700 attended the matines in the afternoon.

At Columbus, O., Thomas Ryan, alias James Sullivan of this city, charged with murder, was refused a new trial and was sentenced to five years in the Penitentiary.

In another place the "Wormail Coal Elevators" are situated in a private residence, and a reliable party, we should find a ready buyer at the hands of one desiring to engage in the combus business.

It would be both in bad taste and discover a lack of modesty to say much about "quality" at Washington now, as the crown doesn't endure to every generation; and Pres. Walton always proclaims that he is not a "fancy boy."

Mrs. Rebecca Dawson, aged 87, widow of the late Samuel Dawson, died at her son's home at Garrison and her remains were taken to Ripley for burial by Rev. A. T. Ennis.

Colonel Samuel A. Forbes was found dead in his room at Ashland yesterday morning. He was 65 years old, and was one of the principal promoters of the Ohio and Big Sandy Railroad.

Claude Boren, who has been connected with the C. & O. the past eleven years at points along this division, has been appointed city freight and passenger agent for that company in Charleston, W. Va.

Mrs. Harvey Keith was elected Elder and Mr. Elmer Downing Deacon at the Washington Christian Church last Sunday, and they will be ordained to their respective offices next Sunday by a Minister from Lexington.

Messrs. George H. Frank and William L. W. Gilmore have purchased the "Bad Corner Clothing Store" of Capt.
John T. Martin, and assumed charge this morning under the firm
name of Frank & Archdeacon. Mr.
Frank has long been associated with Captain Martin as Manager, while Mr.
Archdeacon has been connected with the house of Hechinger & Co. The latter, in common with a host of other friends, wish these young men success in their meritorious deserts.

The Henry K. Stanley is due up tonight for Charleston.

There has been a slight rise in the water at headwaters.

The Bonanza will be down tomorrow
from Pittsburgh tomorrow night.

The Queen City will be down from Pittsburgh tomorrow night.

The New South will take the place of the burned Buckeye State in the Cincinnati-New Orleans trade.

One of the surprising features in the condition of the rivers at headwaters is that the Allegheny continues to put out ice.

The Florence Margaret broke a piston rod at Manchester and had to leave her tow, go back to Cincinnati and be repaired.

The jobbers are merchants of Chattanooga who have a connection with Capt.
John Cramer of Parkersburg, W. Va., by the terms of which the latter is to operate his river packet, the Avalon, now plying between Parkersburg and Pittsburgh through Chattanooga and Paducah in the interest of the Chattanooga and Paducah Transportation Company, but a connection on the part of the Chattanooga merchants and manufacturers of a certain amount of freight amounting to $600 per trip, at a rate to be fixed by their own committee. The Avalon is to connect with boats at Riverton, Ala., for St. Louis and at Cincinnati, and with boats on the Ohio and other Ohio river points, and will make trips a month. This step has been taken by the merchants and jobbers to get cheaper freight rates from river points, as the railroads have refused to recognize Chattanooga as a competitive water-point in the improvement of their line.

The groan hounds from Indianapolis,

she visited that city. He is a substantial citizen, being the Superintendent of the big VanCamp Canning establishment in Indianapolis. The young couple is young, but is now at school.

For several days Mr. and Mrs. Crockett will be in Mayaville to settle the business affairs of Miss Frazar, thence to Indianapolis, where a comfortable home awaits them.

All join in sincere good wishes to them for a happy life.

A DEFINITION.

Atchison Globe.

When a woman has a corn trimmed these days it is referred to as a surgical operation.

AND HE LIES ABOUT IT.

Chicago Times Herald.

What foolish questions people ask! "Yes. When I get home at night my wife always wants to know if I have been thinking of her all day."

THE KENTUCKY VIEW.

We can accomplish nothing in this world, but the man who was given to moralizing, "until the crooked is made straight."

"Well," replied the other, who was of convivial habit, "of course you would except the corkscrew."

IN HIS MIND.

Lookers Magazine.

"Thought you said you had plowed that ten-acre field?" said the first farmer.

"No; I only said I was thinking about plowing it," said the second farmer.

"Oh, I see; you merely turned it over in your mind."

A SKETCH.

Independent Press.

"Do you think," remarked the caller, "that the moon really has any influence?"

"No," said Mr. Lushforth, with a conspiratorial little sigh. "I do not, if the moon did I think I would find life much less of a burden."

KEEPING DOWN THE SCORE.

Doctor," said the student of medicine to his teacher, "what should I do if I am sent a patient from dying on my hands."

"As soon as you are convinced that the case is hopeless, be sure to recommend a change of climate."

THEIR "SAVED" IT.

Editor's Amusement.

Bobbs—Too bad about Nobbs. Lost all of his furniture because of a false alarm of fire at his house.

Bobbs—But, if there was no fire, how could his furniture be destroyed?

Bobbs—Well, you see, Nobbs lives in a house which when they have a volunteer fire department.

Fugitive Claims Victory.

Owensboro, Ky., Jan. 24.—The next encampment of the Kentucky state guard will be held in this city in August and September, says J. A. Funa, who, with Capt. J. Tandy Ellis of Company C, has returned from Frankfort. Major Funa, who is a lawyer, gave no positive promise, but that this city will get the encampment. Each of the three regiments will be here for two weeks.

Wanted His Stepbrother.

Lexington, Ky., Jan. 24.—William Gladys, an Adair county farmer, married his stepbrother. One year ago Wednesday his brother was killed to death by a mule, and the handsome widow set the time for her second marriage on this date on that account.

All Clocks Stopped.

Louisville, Ky., Jan. 24.—All the clocks and watches in the central part of the city stopped running at 7:45 yesterday evening. The cause of the phenomena has not been explained, though it is thought a slight earthquake shock caused it.

Ended in Murder.

Taylorville, Ky., Jan. 24.—Prestley Walker, Jr., died Wednesday morning near Waterloo from a wound received in a fight with Tom Hunter on January 3. Hunter was under bond, and Wednesday morning surrendered.

Lebanon Fire.

Lebanon, Ky., Jan. 24.—An early morning fire almost destroyed the big flouring mill of W. E. Markey & Sons. The loss is $25,000; insurance, $16,000.

Happenings in Kentucky
THE TRIENNIAL CONCLAVE.

President McKinley Will Be Invited to Attend the Grand Encampment at Louisville.

Louisville, Ky., Jan. 24.—Mayor Charles W. Wood and W. H. Baker and Harry T. Jefferson started for Washington Wednesday night to carry to President McKinley's message from the executive committee of the 28th triennial conclave, Knights Templar, inviting him to attend the grand encampment in Louisville August 27-30. The invitation is handsomely engraved on vellum and signed by Chairman C. C. Vogt and Secretary Thomas C. Timberlake, of the executive committee.

The committee hopes for the acceptance of the invitation, but the president because the celebration falls at a period generally in a measure free from official duties and because President McKinley is a man and a Knight Templar. The entrance of Mr. McKinley into the ranks of the Knights will be a unique and notable kidney remedy and this fact is authorized by ample proof by their personal use. I procure the remedy at J. J. CONVINCING PROOF.

The Average Mayville Citizen Must Accept the Following Proof.

The great Sir Isaac Newton, one of the most profound reasoners the world ever produced, once cut a large hole in a hard fence to allow a favorite cat access to two gardens and cut a smaller hole to allow her kitten to follow her. The weakness manifested in Sir Isaac's action was due to want of thought, any other man who mentally debates the proof offered here about Don's Kidney Pills and arrives at any other conclusion is as short of reasoning powers as the philosopher when he turned carpetent when he turned carpetent.

Mr. JOHN H. FANSLER of 209 East

Fourth street says:

"It is most pleasing to learn of a man of such high character as is claimed for him that when there are so many whose merits exist only on paper, I know that Don's Kidney Pills are a valuable and reliable kidney remedy and this fact is authorized by ample proof by their personal use. I procure the remedy at J. J. Wood & Son's Drugstore, corner of West Second and Market streets."
